THE CATHOLIC CAMPUS PARISH OF THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

The Aquinas Newman Center is a permanent Community of the Catholic Faithful, established as a parish of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe at the University of New Mexico. While its primary mission is to the University Students, Faculty, Staff and Administrators, the parish community genuinely welcomes all who wish to participate in the work and worship of the parish. As a Newman Center, we have the mission of proclaiming the Word of God and presenting theology to an academic community that finds in our parish an intellectual and spiritual basis for becoming and remaining committed Roman Catholics.

From the Desk of Kyle Kemp, Director of Religious Formation

Baptism is the first sacramental celebration Catholics celebrate whether it is as infants, children, or adults. It is our entrance into Catholicism, bestowing on us the faith of our parents and of our community. It should not be undertaken without proper consideration and thought.

Aquinas Newman Center has recently updated its norms for the Baptism of infants and children under seven years of age to better reflect the sacrament's sacred meaning and its centrality to our faith. With the baptism of infants during the Masses this weekend, I thought it would be a good time to highlight some of the changes.

Baptism is, first and foremost, a sacrament through which the community welcomes its newest member. Reflecting this, Baptism celebrations occur within the normal communal celebration of liturgy. We encourage parents to plan for the baptism of their child with the same excitement and anticipation as his or her birth. Parents should schedule their child's baptism far enough in advance so that visiting family members and loved ones can arrange to attend. Baptisms are scheduled only on the third Sunday of the month (with the exception of Lent), with a maximum of two children scheduled at each of the five weekend Masses.

Similarly, we encourage parents to attend the Baptismal preparation course before they are engulfed in the excitement of the birth. Just as they spend time contemplating their child's name and the nursery's color theme, we encourage them to spend time reflecting on their responsibility to form their child's faith. The preparation program invites parents to discern and discuss which aspects of the Catholic faith are most important to their growing family and to commit themselves to passing on the faith to their child.

The ministry of Godparent (sponsor) is an ancient role of assisting and supporting the newly baptized in better understanding the faith. Parents are encouraged to choose Godparents who will not only be a part of the child's life but will be a witness to what it means to live as a member of the Catholic Church. The Archdiocese promotes this understanding of the ministry by asking those chosen to be Godparents to attest that they are living within the norms of the Catholic faith. While the role of Godparent is reserved for Catholics, parents can also invite a person living as a Christian outside of Catholic faith (tradition) to be a Christian Witness for their child.

The sacrament of Baptism bestows God's loving grace not only on the child being baptized but on the entire community witnessing the sacrament. The revisions to our baptismal guidelines have been designed to help the parents and the community better understand and celebrate this grace. Baptismal guidelines and required forms are available inside the main doors to the gathering space or by calling Charisse DeFlice in the parish office.

LITURGY

Congratulations to the following babies who will be baptized into the Catholic Church this month. May the babies and their families find support and inspiration in this parish community as they continue their journey of faith.

Ava Marie DeLayo Parents: David and Ashley DeLayo
Sponsors: David and Patty Heiman

Kaylee Marie Hernandez-Scarborough Parents: Rafael Hernandez and Marisa Hollis Scarborough
Sponsors: Arthur Herrera and Victoria Trujillo

FAITH COMES BY HEARING: Don't miss next Sunday!! Together, we are about to begin a wonderful journey discovering God's Word in a whole new way. Check out the signs for "You've Got The Time" and watch the video in the gathering space. Look for it on our website, too. This is nothing like anything we've ever done before!

INTERESTED in doing something a little different this Lent? What if instead of giving up donuts, or your favorite TV show, you gave up your right to be offended. Or your need to be right? Both elements of ego that can lead to violence. Much of the violence we encounter and perpetuate stems from wounded egos. The work of letting go of ego is the work of the Spirit, however there are things that can help us in that spiritual journey. If you are interested in deepening into the path of non-violence, and looking at the role of ego in violence toward ourselves and others, then consider attending a short term group this Lent. The group will meet for four Wednesdays, during Lent from 7:00—8:30pm at the Newman Center, beginning March 4. The group will be limited in size and led by Judy Bierbaum who has led non-violence workshops in the U.S. and abroad in war-torn areas for more than 10 years. For more information or to reserve a spot, please call Judy at 268-1040.
